

Sociology Pathway, AA

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)	Measurable Student Learning Outcomes (MSLOs)- PLO Alignment
	ENG101	ENG102	PHI105	SOC200	HIS103	SOC101
1. Examine different situations using multiple lenses and sociological theories.	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
2. Recognize some of the ways in which individuals` biographies and identities, including our own, are shaped through social institutions, patterns of social inequalities, privileges, cultural practices, and biases.			✓	✓	✓	✓
3. Explain the uniqueness of sociology as a social science discipline.				✓	✓	✓
4. Apply the sociological perspective about the social world.				✓		✓
5. Evaluate the diversity of the US, including, but not limited to, race, ethnicity, ability, gender, and sexualities, and their place in the global context.	✓		✓	✓	✓	✓
6. Critically evaluate diverse social, cultural, and political perspectives and ideas using evidence- based data.	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
7. Communicate in a manner that demonstrates empathy, self-awareness, open mindedness and responsiveness.	✓	✓	✓		✓
8. Formulate effective and convincing written, oral and visual arguments that integrate sociological evidence.	✓	✓	✓	✓
9. Employ ethical standards and social responsibility to guide decisions and behaviors.	✓	✓	✓
10. Locate and evaluate quantitative and qualitative research to analyze social outcomes, behaviors and problems.	✓	✓	✓	✓
11. Apply relevant knowledge, skills, and habits of mind to seek career opportunities in the field.						