

CENTRAL ARIZONA COLLEGE
COMMITTEE ON FREE EXPRESSION
ANNUAL REPORT

Annual Report Due: December 1, 2018

Central Arizona College has established a committee on Free Expression, which submits an annual report as required by A.R.S. § 15-1868. The membership of the committee as of fall 2018 is provided in Exhibit A- Free Expression Committee Charter.

THE PINAL COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT GOVERNING BOARD (PCCCDGB) AND CENTRAL ARIZONA COLLEGE (CAC) PROMOTE AND PROTECTS FREE EXPRESSION

As reflected in PCCCD Policy- Freedom of Expression and Procedure- Public Access and Expression on College Property and long-standing practices, the board and the college strive to ensure the fullest degree of intellectual freedom and free expression. The college does not shield individuals from speech protected by the First Amendment, including ideas and opinions that may be unwelcomed, disagreeable or deeply offensive. The board policy on procedures related to Public Access and Expression on College Property is provided in Exhibit B.

Students, staff and faculty members may discuss any topic, as the First Amendment allows within the limits of reasonable content- and viewpoint-neutral restrictions on time, place and manner of expression that are consistent with applicable law.

1. The PCCCDGB AND THE COLLEGE DOES NOT TOLERATE BARRIERS TO OR DISRUPTIONS OF PROTECTED SPEECH.

PCCCDGB and CAC does not tolerate barriers to or disruptions of protected speech. The campus facilitates spontaneous expression on campus and has procedures to reserve space on campus for planned speech activities. All expressive activities are subject to reasonable time, place and manner restrictions as permitted by law.

Not all speech is protected speech. Expressive activities are subject to other applicable laws, including laws that address discrimination, harassment, safety, defamation, threats, privacy, confidentiality, and commercial speech. Actions that unlawfully disrupt the function of the governing board or the college are also prohibited.

2. THE PCCCDGB AND THE COLLEGE PROMPTLY ADDRESS ALL ALLEGATIONS OF BARRIERS TO OR DISRUPTIONS OF PROTECTED SPEECH

CAC has a process for responding to allegations of barriers to or disruptions of protected speech. As appropriate, the college may address the conduct immediately and the response may include a process to determine if additional review of sanctions are appropriate under board policy, and the student code of conduct. Campus police may be involved if allegations include criminal conduct or if safety concerns are raised.

CAC received no reports of barriers to disruptions of expression during the past year. Individuals and groups who frequent CAC for free speech purposes have all been allowed to use public spaces or present in reserved spaces when proper reservations have been made according to college procedures.

3. THE PCCDGB AND THE COLLEGE PROMOTE DIVERSITY OF THOUGHT AND ADMINISTRATIVE AND INDITUTIONAL NUETRALITY.

CAC has written a policy and corresponding procedures in compliance with A.R.S. § 15-1866. The policy is being reviewed by the college policy committee constituency groups and will go before the governing board in January for the first reading and February for the second reading and approval. A draft of the college policy and procedure are attached as Exhibit B.

As described in this report, the PCCCGB and the college remain committed to promoting and protecting diversity of through and free expression. From time to time, however, the board and the college hear concerns from members of the campus and the broader community who many not appreciate the broad constitutional protections afforded to speech- even to speech that many in the community may find deeply offensive. The college is committed to protecting expression permitted under applicable law. There are also committed as part of their educational mission to providing information about protected speech to those who may seek to have the board or the college interfere with or suppress free expression. When protected but offensive speech occurs on campus, the college may use that as an opportunity to educate the broader community as to the nature of constitutional protections as well as to identify opportunities for the safe expression of divergent viewpoints- countering the offensive speech with more speech.

4. COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS AND PLANS FOR THE UPCOMING YEAR

Central Arizona College will continue to plan co-curricular programming for the campus community related to free expression. As an example, The Culture of Rioting Lecture wan an event held this year. It was open to the public, very well attended and discussed the rise and fall of student protests in the 60s and 70s and the major student protests of the last 50 years. In addition, the CAC Office of Student Life has for many years celebrated Constitution Day. Plans for next year include a faculty-led open discussion about constitutional rights, including free expression. Annual observance of Constitution Day include an informational table and information and interactive materials distributed via email to all students. Also CAC has an annual presence at the Constitutional Issues of Higher Education conference hosted by the University of Arizona which has a primary focus on first amendment free speech.

The CAC committee on Free Expression will meet over the next year to review free speech expression on our campuses and to consider additional ways support and promote protected speech at CAC. All members of the Central Arizona College (CACPD) Police Department will be required to attend training specific to the first amendment in order to better understand their roles and responsibilities as they prepare for and respond to first amendment-protected events. Finally, the college will include information describing the CAC policy and procedures regarding free expression in each of our New Student Orientation sessions beginning in the fall 2019 in order to be in compliance with A.R.S. § 15-1869.

5. ALLOCATION OF STUDENT ACTIVITY FEES

For the purposes of this report, and as stated in A.R.S. § 15-1867, “Student Activity Fees” means any fee that is charged to students by a community college in this state, and that is used to support and facilitate the expression and activities of students or student organizations.

The college does not charge fees to students for the purposes listed above.

SECTION 2: General Principles

- A. The College will at all times maintain a Content Neutral position in the application and enforcement of this procedure.
- B. As an institution of higher education, the College is dedicated to the principle that a free exchange of ideas is fundamental to the pursuit and dissemination of knowledge. To that end, the College is committed to protecting every member of the College Community's right to speak, write, listen to, explore, and debate competing ideas.
- C. In any higher-education environment, including here at the College, it is normal for the ideas of various members of a college community to often differ and sometimes conflict. Although the College values highly the principles of civility and mutual respect, it is not the proper role of an institution of higher education to attempt to shield members of the College Community from ideas and opinions they may find unwelcome, disrespectful, upsetting, or even deeply offensive. Concerns about civility and mutual respect do not justify closing off discussion of any ideas or opinions, no matter how disagreeable or offensive they may be to some or even most members of the College Community.
- D. The College is committed fully to the fundamental tenet of higher education that the appropriate response to false, offensive, or even abhorrent Speech is not to prohibit it or hide from it, but to respond to and challenge it with more Speech.
- E. Although members of the College Community are free to criticize and contest the views expressed by others, they may not deny, materially obstruct, or otherwise improperly interfere with others' freedom to express views with which they disagree or which they find offensive or even loathsome.
- F. The freedom to express ideas does not mean members of the College Community may exercise that freedom in ways that are incompatible with Ordinary College Operations or the rights of other members of the College Community, including their right to a full and equal opportunity to pursue their education, to a College environment free from impermissible or Prohibited Discrimination and Harassment, to access the resources available at the College, and to express their own opinions and beliefs.
- G. The College may restrict Public Expression that violates state, federal, or local law; defames a specific person; or constitutes a Breach of the Peace, Commercial Speech, Fighting Words, Gratuitous Violence, Harassment, a Heckler's Veto, Obscenity, Prohibited Discrimination, or a True Threat; or otherwise disrupts Ordinary College Operations, College Sponsored Activities, or College Authorized Activities.

- H. The College may place reasonable, Content Neutral regulations on the time, place, and manner of Public Expression to ensure it does not disrupt Ordinary College Functions, College Sponsored Activities, or College Authorized Activities.
- I. The fact that Public Expression activity occurs on College Property does not imply and should not be construed as implying approval or endorsement by the College of any viewpoint or message expressed during the activity.

SECTION 3: Location of Public Expression

- A. Any Public Area on College Property may be used for Public Expression consistent with this procedure, including on a spontaneous basis, provided the Public Area has not already been reserved for use at that same time, subject to reasonable time, manner, and place restrictions (see Section 4, below).
- B. Reserving Public Areas for Public Expression
 - 1. Reservations are not required in order to use Public Areas for Public Expression activities.
 - 2. The College recommends individuals or groups who wish to engage in Public Expression activities that are anticipated or likely to involve or attract large numbers of people, or that will involve special equipment (e.g., stages or platforms, chairs, sound amplification) consult with the College's administration regarding the most appropriate Public Areas to accommodate those activities and reserve those Public Areas in advance.
 - 3. Individuals or groups who wish to engage in planned Public Expression activities may reserve a particular Public Area in advance by submitting a written "Public Area Reservation Form" as follows:
 - a. At least two (2) business days before the anticipated date of the Public Expression activity, although the College strongly encourages the submission of reservations as early as possible;
 - b. To the Dean of Students or his/her designee when Public Expression activities are to be conducted at one of the College's campuses;

- c. Public Area Reservation Forms may be obtained from the Presidents' office or online at:
https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?CentralAZCollege&layout_id=11
 4. Reservation submissions will be processed on a first-come-first-served, Content-Neutral basis and may be denied at the College's discretion under one or more of the following circumstances:
 - a. The Public Expression activity conflicts with scheduled College Sponsored Activities or College Authorized Activities;
 - b. The Public Area in question has already been reserved by another individual or group;
 - c. The Public Expression activity for which the reservation is sought does not conform to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions set forth by the College;
 - d. The individual or group submitting the reservation has a prior history with the College of engaging in Public Expression activities that are harmful or injurious to members of the College Community, damaging to or the cause of excessive littering on College Property, excessively disruptive to Ordinary College Operations, or that otherwise violate College policy or do not conform to the College's time, place, and manner restrictions.
 5. Individuals and groups submitting reservations will be notified within one (1) business day if their reservations are confirmed or have been denied.
 6. If a reservation submission is denied, the College will provide a timely written explanation for the denial and make reasonable efforts to work with the individual or group whose reservation was denied to modify the reservation submission to facilitate its approval.
- C. The College reserves the right to cancel any Public Area reservation or terminate any Public Expression activity already in progress if anyone participating in the Public Expression activity engages in any conduct prohibited by this AP (see Section 8 below), by state or federal law, or municipal ordinance.
- D. Appeals
 1. An appeal of the denial or cancellation of a reservation submission or of a decision to terminate Public Expression activity may be submitted to the Vice President of Student Services, or his/her designee within three (3) business days of the date of the denial, cancellation, or termination.

2. Consideration of appeals shall be limited to questions of whether a misapplication of this procedure or other College policies or procedures resulted in the denial or cancellation of a reservation submission or the decision to terminate Public Expression activity. The Vice President for Student Services, or his/her designee will not review or otherwise second-guess decisions of the Dean of Students, or his/her designee regarding Public Expression or this procedure on any other basis.
3. Appeals must be in writing and state the following:
 - a. The name of the individual bringing the appeal (the "Appellant") and whether he or she is bringing it on behalf of a particular group;
 - b. A summary of the facts leading to the denial, cancellation, or termination, including the date, time, and location of the Public Expression activity, as well as a description of the Public Expression in which the Appellant engaged or intended to engage;
 - c. The basis why the Appellant believes this procedure or other specific College policy or procedure was misapplied, and
 - d. The relief the Appellant is requesting.
4. A copy of the Appeal must be delivered to the Vice President for Student Services or his/her designee and to the Dean of Students (the "Appellee").
5. The Appellee may submit a written response to the appeal within one (1) business day. Copies of the Appellee's response must be delivered to the Vice President for Student Services or his/her designee and to the Appellant.
6. Appeals pursuant to this procedure will be decided and the Appellant notified of the decision within two (2) business days of the College's receipt of the appeal.

SECTION 4: Time, Place, and Manner Restrictions

- C. All time, place, and manner restrictions shall be the least restrictive means necessary to achieve the compelling College interest and must not effectively stop or prevent spontaneous Public Expression and to maximize opportunities and alternative channels for Public Expression.
- D. Any time, place, and manner restrictions on Public Expression shall be Content Neutral.
- E. In the event the College deems it necessary to restrict Public Expression, the College will nevertheless, to the maximum extent practicable, propose and provide alternate opportunities for such Public Expression.
- F. The College reserves the right to require any form of Public Expression that a reasonable person applying contemporary community standards would find includes themes or depictions of graphic violence, explicit human sexual acts, or explicit human nudity (but does not otherwise constitute Gratuitous Violence or Obscenity); regardless of its artistic, scientific, or academic value; be conducted or displayed at a time, in a place, and/or in a manner designed to decrease the likelihood that members of the College Community (e.g., minor children) will unintentionally encounter the Public Expression.
