These dates are established with the district wide operating hours of Monday-Thursday. Withdrawals will not be processed after the dates established above. Emails will be accepted if sent prior to midnight of the established date.

Regular/Short Term Courses:

Students can request an official withdrawal during the first two-thirds of the class based on the beginning and end date as listed in the schedule of classes. During this period a student may withdraw regardless of reason and must initiate and complete the withdrawal request through the registration office. Instructor permission is not needed during this time period. During the final one-third of the course, if there are extenuating circumstances, a student may request an official withdrawal. The approval of the instructor, the division chair or program director and the academic dean will be required for processing through the registrar. Documentation of the extenuating circumstance is required

Open Entry/Open Exit Courses:

Students can request an official withdrawal based two-thirds of the days between the date of the registration and the last day of the semester. During this period a student may withdraw regardless of reason and must initiate and complete the withdrawal request through the registration office. Instructor permission is not needed during this time period. During the final one-third of the course, if there are extenuating circumstances, a student may request an official withdrawal. The approval of the instructor, the division chair or program director and the academic dean will be required for processing through the registrar. Documentation of the extenuating circumstance is required.

*Non-Standard Length Class examples are: one day class, one week class, one week-end class, etc.
