Reviews of ACIS France Tour (May 2018)

“The guide, the hotels, the restaurants were fantastic. The trip was priceless.”
-Student

“I felt like I was in a fairy tale. I’ve seen things I’ve only seen in movies.”
-Community member

“The first two days I was in culture shock but by the end of the tour I felt like I had a better understanding of others.”
-Student

“The hotels were lovely, the places we visited were amazing, the activities were incredibly fun, and the tour guide couldn’t have done a better job.”
-Student

Applying for the Program

Two letters of recommendation required for CAC students; attendance at two information sessions required for community members. Minimum age for participants is 18. For more information, visit centralaz.edu/humanities or centralaz.edu/international.

Academic Credit

Academic credit is available by registering for CAC’s online humanities class HMC251 during the spring semester. The course will prepare students to make the most of their 10 days in Spain. On the tour, the learning continues with lectures by local guides and excursions to many of the famous sites studied.

Questions?
Contact Professor Hanson at alyson.hanson@centralaz.edu

SPAIN
(SPRING BREAK 2020)

Humanities Tours
Central Arizona College
ACIS Humanities Tour of Spain
March 12 – 21, 2020

Join CAC’s Community Education Class to immerse yourself in the art and architecture, culture, and culinary delights of Spain. You will travel with Humanities Professor Alyson Hanson and other CAC students and community members on this physically active educational tour designed for young adults and the “young at heart.” Applications will be accepted through October 15, 2019 and thereafter on a space-available basis.

Financial aid eligible!
Application deadline is March 21, 2019 for early registration discount!

Tour cost is $3710, which includes round-trip flights from Phoenix to Madrid, centrally located hotels, 24-hour Tour Manager, daily breakfast and dinner in Spain, and tours/entrance fees as outlined in the ACIS Tour Brochure. Overnights: Toledo 2, Granada 1, Ronda 1, Seville 2, and Madrid 2.

Additional expenses include: $110 for tips for ACIS tour manager and bus driver and $25 for the CAC Community Education fee. ACIS recommends $50 a day for spending money.

Minimum payment is $495 to register. The $3710 student fee is for a triple room and includes an Early Registration Discount and the Basic Protection Plan. See ACIS Tour Brochure or website (www.acis.com) for additional fees for upgraded insurance plans and double room charge for adults.

ACIS Humanities Tour of Italy
May 13 – 22, 2019

Accepting applications on a space-available basis. Tour cost is $4419, which includes round trip flights from Phoenix to Venice/Rome, centrally located hotels, 24-hour Tour Manager, daily breakfast and dinner in Italy, and tours/entrance fees as outlined in the ACIS Tour Brochure.

Overnights: Venice 2, Florence 2, Rome 2, Sorrento 1, Rome 1. Academic credit is available.