If you are awarded financial aid, but wish to opt out of CAC Bookstore Charging, you must complete the table below and provide the book cost information and supporting documentation from the vendor(s). The Financial Aid Office will select the resource that is most cost efficient to you. If the Opt Out Voucher is selected, funds will be issued to you the first week of bookstore charging. The Cashier's Office will process your stipend and funds will be distributed through BankMobile. Please make sure you have selected your delivery preference at www.refundselection.com . If this Opt Out Voucher is approved, you will not be able to charge at the bookstore for this term.

Submission deadline is on or before the first day of classes to ensure funds are available.
