

FAQ's

Central Arizona College /Advising

Questions: advising@centralaz.edu

What is a prerequisite course?

A course that you must complete with a satisfactory grade before enrolling in another course or being admitted to a specific program.

How to know when the semester starts?

Check the current academic calendar here <https://centralaz.edu/academics/academic-calendar/>

Will a grade of "D" or lower transfer?

The credits from a course where a grade of "D" or "F" was earned, will not transfer to the university. In some of CAC's AAS degrees a "D" may be accepted. Always check with your advisor to confirm for your individual situation.

How to add/drop my classes?

From your CAC student portal or complete this form <https://centralaz.edu/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/AddDrop-Withdrawal-Form-Rev.Mar2020.pdf> and email to admissions@centralaz.edu

What is an Area of Interest?

Areas of Interest consist of groupings of similar Degrees and Certificates. All of CAC's degree options can be found in one of the 9 Areas of Interest.

What is a Pathway?

A Pathway is a specific degree plan located in an Area of Interest.

Hold on my account, what do I do?

Contact Records/Admissions to determine the nature of the hold. Once the reason for the hold has been resolved, you will be able to register. Records/Admissions can be reached at: admissions@centralaz.edu

Where to find my class schedule?

- Log into Student Portal to view and print your
- Print or View Class Schedule
- ♣ Go to my.centralaz.edu
- ♣ Select: LOGIN-Student Portal Homepage
- ♣ Academics
- ♣ My Class Schedule
- ♣ Select: My Class Schedule  PDF Class Schedule

How to find my unofficial transcript, grades and/or GPA?

- Login to the Student Portal and view your unofficial transcript
- Print or View Unofficial Transcript
- ♣ Go to my.centralaz.edu
- ♣ Select: LOGIN-Student Portal Homepage
- ♣ Academics
- ♣ Degree Audit
- ♣ Select: Unofficial Transcript

