CAREER INFORMATION

NTR 105 – ServSafe Preparation Course only provides the coursework and preparation for the ServSafe Exam and does not include obtaining the ServSafe certification. Students must pay for and take the exam separate from this class.

CDM, CFPPs are nationally recognized experts at managing foodservice operations. Many work in healthcare, nursing facilities, rehabilitation facilities, senior living communities, or hospitals. Some work in correctional facilities, schools, and the military, others work for corporations. The salary for a CDM ranges from $48,600 to $68,000. Certified Dietary Managers are trained and qualified to manage menus, food purchasing, and food preparation; and to apply nutrition principles, document nutrition information, ensure food safety, manage work teams, and much more.

National Certification (Credentialing Exam)

Students who complete the certificate are eligible to earn two credentials, Certified Dietary Manager (CDM) and Certified Food Protection Professional (CFPP) by taking a National Certification Exam offered by Association of Nutrition & Foodservice Professionals (ANFP).

- The CDM/CFPP exam is offered year-round at more than 200 approved computer testing centers. Please refer to Exam Candidate Handbook.
