

Title IX Syllabus Statement

Addressing Incidents of Title IX Sexual Harassment

In accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Central Arizona College (CAC) prohibits unlawful sexual harassment against any participant in its education programs or activities. Sexual harassment includes quid pro quo (this for that) harassment, hostile environment, sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking. This prohibition against sexual harassment—including sexual violence—applies to students, CAC employees, and visitors to campus.

The policy of Central Arizona College (CAC) is to provide an educational, employment, and business environment free of sexual violence, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct or communications constituting sexual harassment as prohibited by state and federal law. Incidents of sexual misconduct should be reported via in person, phone, or email to the college Title IX Coordinator, Laura Shepherd, Signal Peak Campus, office M102-I; 520-494-5106/520-840-1175; titleix@centralaz.edu or any other Official with Authority, as outlined in the policy.
