CARES Act Round 1 Eligibility Requirements:

In order to be eligible to receive CARES Act funding, students had to be enrolled in 3 or more credits in the Spring 2020 semester, as of 3/13/2020. The following classes were excluded from the calculations:

- ESL/HSE classes
- Classes tied to a “Community Education” program
- 0-credit classes
- Audited classes
- Classes graded out before 3/13/2020
- Classes where a student withdrew (even after 3/13/2020)
- Classes taught at our prison facility
- Classes tied to an online program
  - Diabetes Care and Education Certificate
  - Community Nutrition Worker Certificate
  - Nutrition and Health Promotion Certificate

- Community Health Worker Certificate
- Health Information Technology AAS
- Coding and Reimbursement Certificate

If, after all of these class exclusions, a student was enrolled in 3 or more credits for Spring 2020, additional checks were made to verify eligibility. The following students were excluded from the calculations:

- Students who were non-citizens
- Students with no SSN or an invalid SSN
  - Invalid SSN's included SSNs with a length less than 9 characters, or an SSN that was the same as the StuNum
- Students who received the Early College Scholarship in Spring 2020
- Students who were enrolled in any Dual Enrollment class in Spring 2020
- Students with no high school transcripts on file (unless they had previously received Title IV aid)
- Male students who had never received Title IV aid, or never submitted a FAFSA (to be in compliance with the Selective Service requirement)

All students who met all of the eligibility criteria were automatically awarded a $350 Federal CARES/HEERF Technology Grant. These students are also eligible to request additional funding.

If a student believes they meet eligibility criteria and have been denied assistance, they can verify information or submit supporting documentation with the Dean of Students Office. Students whose eligibility are verified will be approved to receive the CARES Technology Grant automatically, and the additional emergency grant, if requested, as funds are available.

CRRSAA (CARES II) Eligibility Requirements:

Central Arizona College (CAC) has determined 3 specific types of funding for the Spring 2021 semester as outlined below. All funds will be available to students who meet the following criteria:

- Degree Seeking- including high school students
- Registered for 3+ credits
- In good academic standing (CAC runs Satisfactory Academic Progress reports on all students not just those receiving financial aid).
- US citizen or eligible non-citizen

Students not included in the awards include:

- Community Education, ABE or GED
- Students registered for 0-2 credits
- Students not in good academic standing with the College
- Students who are not US citizens or eligible non-citizens

Maximum award for any 1 student during a semester is $1400.

CAC CARES award based on Estimated Family Contribution (EFC) as determined by the most current FAFSA on file.

$700 will be awarded to all students who meet the criteria listed above and have an EFC of $0-$1400.

$500 will be awarded to all students who meet the criteria listed above and have an EFC of $1401-$5766. $5766 is the highest EFC a student can have and still be awarded aid based on guidance from the Department of Education for full time students.

ARP (CARES III) Eligibility Requirements:

- SUMMER 2021: CAC students must have been enrolled in at least three (3) credits in the Summer 2021 semester and completed the CAC CARES Relief application. This included high school/dual-credit students. Students may have received a maximum of $700 in the Summer 2021 semester.
- FALL 2021: CAC students must have been enrolled in at least three (3) credits in the Fall 2021 semester and complete the CAC CARES Relief application. This included high school/dual-credit students. Students may be awarded a maximum of $1400 in various CARES dollars during the Fall 2021 semester. Maximum for each individual award (CAC CARES, Relief, and VA) is $700.
- SPRING 2022: CAC students must have been enrolled in at least three (3) credits in the Spring 2022 semester and complete the CAC CARES Relief application. This included high school/dual-credit students. Students may be awarded a maximum of $1400 in various CARES dollars during the Fall 2021 semester. Maximum for each individual award (CAC CARES, Relief, and VA) is $700.
