

Privacy Statement

Central Arizona College is committed to protecting the privacy and accuracy of your information. We do not sell, rent, or trade personal information gathered from our Web server with outside or third-party agencies. Data may be shared with College affiliates, or with a user's permission.

The following website activity information may be gathered from online visitors to assist with site improvements and customer service:

- Your Internet location (IP address)
- Which pages you visit on our site
- The page used to access our site or the referring site
- Date and time
- Which software you use to visit our site and its configuration

This site makes no attempt to identify individual visitors from this information. Personally identifiable information is not released to external parties without your consent unless required by law.

CAC collects e-mail addresses of those who communicate with us or request information from us. You may choose to provide us with information through email, a web form or you may sign up to be on a mailing list. Requests for information will be directed to the appropriate staff or college department to respond to the request.

CAC may use third party vendors to advertise services provided by Central Arizona College online. These vendors, including search engines (like Google), social networks (like Facebook), and others, may show ads on our behalf through their platforms across the Internet. These services use cookies to tailor ads to your interests, based on websites you have visited. You can opt out of many of these cookies by visiting the Network Advertising Initiative opt-out page (link is external).

The CAC website may provide links to external websites or resources located outside of the centralaz.edu domain. The college is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of the external websites to which we link. These external sites may have their own policies or none at all.