Submitting a DMCA Notice of Infringement:

The Digital Millennium Copyright Act specifies that all infringement claims must be in writing (either electronic mail or paper letter) and must include the following elements:

- A physical or electronic signature of the copyright owner or person authorized to act on its behalf;
- Description of the infringed work;
- Description of the infringed material;
- Contact information for the complainant, including address, telephone number, and email;
- A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner or the law; and
- A statement that the information contained in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner.
